An undertaking as to disclosure must be made by all parties except an independent children's lawyer.

A person must not make a statement or sign an undertaking if the person knows or should reasonably have known that it is false or misleading.

This form must be filed before the first court date unless the Court orders otherwise.

Part A About the party giving this undertaking

Family name as used now	Given names

Part B Notice and undertaking

1) I have read Parts 6.01 and 6.02 of the Family Law Rules:

2) I am aware of my duty to the Court and to each other party including any independent children's lawyer to give full and frank disclosure of all information relevant to the issues in the case in a timely manner;

3) I undertake to the Court that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I have carried out and complied with my duty of disclosure;

4) I undertake to continue to comply with my duty of disclosure until the conclusion of the case;

5) I understand the nature and terms of this undertaking and that if I breach the undertaking I may be guilty of contempt of court.

Signed by [full name]	Witnessed by [full name]

Part C Certificate of Lawyer

I am the lawyer for the person giving the undertaking and I certify that I have explained to the person giving the undertaking:

(a) The nature and terms of the undertaking; and

(b) That the undertaking is a promise to the court to comply with its terms; and

(c) That the undertaking has the same effect as an order of the court; and

(d) That a breach of the undertaking may be a contempt of the court punishable by a fine or imprisonment.
